WILKINS REPORTS EPIC FIRST FLIGHT IN ANTARCTIC

Fate Takes Another Fling

At $20,000,000 Plant Heir's

Love for Film Star Wife

CONSTANCE BENNETT

Constance Bennett, noted film actress, and her husband, Philip Morgan Plant, heir to the $20,000,000 millions of his father's estate. Love of theirs, after many ups and downs, met a new setback in word from Paris that the couple, separated because they agreed to disagree, were there to establish residence for divorce suit purposes. But Plant today vigorously denied this, though his residence is not that of his screen star mate. At the top are seen Plant and Miss Judith Smith, New York society girl, whose engagement to him was broken almost on the eve of the wedding date; and Plant and the actress who did become his bride, after an elopement to Greenwich, where reporters "batted in" to get the news. At the lower right is Miss Helen Jesmer, Folies girl, to whom Plant made love, and to whom he later paid $75,000 in settlement of her $500,000 suit for injuries in the crashing of his auto against a tree when she was his passenger.

HAS TWO WIVES AND WAS READY FOR A THIRD

Wearing a Charlie Chaplin mustache and with his hair slicked down, Gordon Pavia, 25, of Medford, in Roxbury court today admitted he is married to two women and planned to marry a third.

The latest bride-to-be was Miss Margaret Hunt, 19, of Thompson st., Roxbury, where Pavia was arrested, and with whom he was about to file marriage intentions.

Pavia said he had married his first wife in Boston and the second in Manchester, N. H., living with the latter until last Friday. The man admitted he had planned to marry Miss Hunt as soon as possible.

He pleaded guilty to the paternity charge and was held in $2000 for two weeks, at which time police will charge Pavia with bigamy.

Woman Burned

Marlboro, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Eudith Chaston, 45, West Main st., is reported dying in Marlboro Hospital as a result of burns from a stove explosion.

'Twas a Hot, Jazzy Piece the Radio Brought In

A real hot number sounded off today on Frank L. Young's radio set in Ashmont st., Dorchester, and when the song was ended, $100 damage by fire had been marred up as a severe.

The radio set short-circuited somewhere between the kitchen and the auditor and blazed on a frequency of several meters, inflicting damage to the radio set, the nearby window and curtains and an area of wallpaper.

A still later was sounded and Eugene 46 and Lullaby 75 tuned in a couple of chemical fires.

GERMANY PLANS NOTE TO ALLIES ON REPARATIONS

Berlin, Nov. 23 (AP)—A reply to the English and French memoranda giving the views of those governments on the functions and jurisdictions of the experts who are to fix a new total for Germany's war reparations will be sent to London and Paris this weekend. It was announced the response will be in the nature of a courteous acknowledgment of the memoranda, since those documents do not in themselves call for a formal reply. The acknowledgment, however, will give Germany an opportunity to restate its position.

JILTED WIDOW WINS $5000 VERDICT

Worcester, Nov. 23.—A jury in Superior court today awarded a verdict of $5000 in the lawsuit of promiscuous suit brought by Mrs. Mary M. Johnson, a widow, and waitress in a Worcester hotel, against Robert D. Ware, Webster bus driver.

The case was on trial three days. Mrs. Johnson testified she and Ware had been keeping company two years and that he had asked her to marry him. She testified he provided her a telephone, gave her jewelry and took her to dinner. Ware denied he had asked her to marry him.

MAYOR LARKIN WILL BE UNOPPOSED AT POLLS

Mayor Edward H. Larkin of Malden will have no opposition for reelection for a second term of two years. Today the Malden Law Commission denied the appeal of Charles A. Vaughan, whose backers had the sufficient certified signatures. Joseph P. Ryan, a contractor, who had also filed papers, today withdrew from the race, leaving the field clear for Mayor Larkin.

Air Tests by Wilkins Told by Radiogram

By CAPTAIN SIR GEORGE HUBERT WILKINS

Commander of the Wilkins-Hearst Antarctic Expedition
(Copyright, 1933, by the San Francisco Examiner and by Universal Service. Reproduction in whole or in part expressly forbidden.)

Deception Island, Antarctica, Nov. 23 (By Radio via 6-ARD, San Francisco Examiner Short-Wave Station, San Francisco, Cal.)—The first airplane flight ever made in the Antarctic was made here by Lt. Ben Eilson and Wilkins flying a Lockheed plane. Mild weather has settled snow on the landing field, so tests were made with wheels, ice in the middle of the harbor, although surrounded with water, is still solid and will serve for the takeoff with ship and heavy loads when weather permits. Temperature was just below freezing.

Los Angeles, Nov. 23.—Another conquest of man over nature has just been recorded in far-away Antarctica—"way down at the bottom of the world."

For the first time in the history of aviation, man-made wings have flown over the snow and icebound vasts of the Antarctic region, according to word received here from Capt. Sir George Hubert Wilkins, commander of the Wilkins-Hearst Antarctic expedition.

Two California-made planes, the Los Angeles and the San Francisco have been sent soaring over virgin horizons surrounding the South Pole territory, the noted explorer's dispatch revealed.

The flights, first ever made in the Antarctic, were satisfactory and brought the expedition one step nearer its great adventure, the "Big Jump" from the Atlantic to the Pacific side.

CHOIR SINGER WHO KISSED IS FREE

Mrs. Ethel G. Cowan, choir singer in a Cambridge church, who admitted exchanging kisses with a 45-year-old deacon of the same church, but always in the presence of a third person, was awarded a divorce today in Middlesex Probate Court from John W. Cowan.

Mrs. Cowan charged her husband with cruel and abusive treatment. Besides wanting a better flight against her divorce action, Cowan filed suit against Fred G. Robinson, the deacon, for alleged alienation of affections.

Robinson became a central figure in the long trial and it was brought out that one of the three Cowan children had been named after him. Cowan was a Sunday School teacher in the church.

Mrs. Cowan was given custody of the three children, Lucie, H. H. Alfred Robinson, 8, and Ronald Percy, 6, and Cowan must pay $10 a week for the support of each child. The husband is given permission to see the two boys on weekends twice a month and the girl on Sunday twice a month.

HELEN JESMER BOSTON AMERICAN FRIDAY, NOV. 23, 1928

Police Chief, Twice Tried as Slayer, Reinstated

Camden, N. J., Nov. 23 (AP)—Seranus A. Lenzel, removed as chief of police after the killing in July 1926 of Don R. Mellett, Camden editor, tried twice for his murder and finally acquitted after he served several months of a penitentiary sentence, was reinstated today as head of the Camden police department.

Lenzel's removal was on charges of inefficiency. His first trial resulted in conviction, but he was acquitted on a second hearing after he had entered the penitentiary.

The Cowans were married March 7, 1914, and lived on Lee st., Cambridge, while Robinson resides on Cottage st., but for a time Mrs. Cowan was housekeeper for Robinson and the whole Cowan family lived in her house.

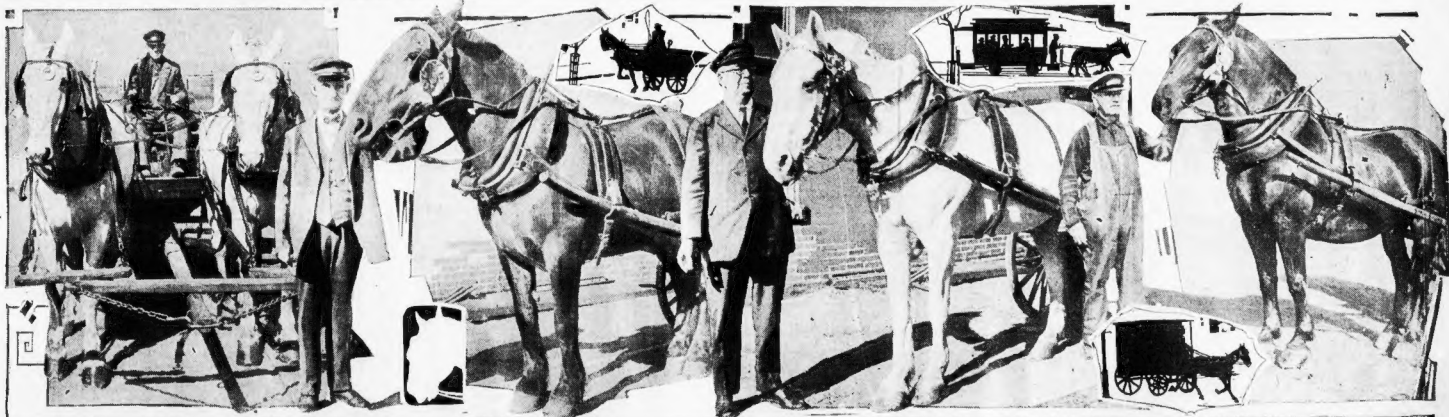

GIRL ENDS LIFE AS DAD CALLS HER BACK HOME

London, N. J., Nov. 23 (DN)—Ordered by her father to return to her home from Baltimore, Katherine Smith, 18, shot and killed herself on the doorstep of her father's home. A pistol was found in one hand and in the other the following note:

"Dear Dad: You ordered me home and here I am."

The only explanation that her parent could advance today was that she had recently been recalled from her new life in Baltimore, where she had made many friends while staying at the home of a relative.

LIFE OF EASE FOR THEM

FAMOUS TEAM WON RIBBONS

The last of the Boston Elevated's horses has been replaced by a machine. Photo shows "Tom" and "Jerry," teammates for 16 years, and their driver, Amos Rose. They won many workhorse parade ribbons.

HE WAS A "HORSE OF SAND"

HE WAS THE "VERY OLD NICK"

"Nick," one of the most mischievous of all "11" horses, shown with his driver, William Norton. "Nick" kept on the good side of the law by shaking hands daily with Patrolman John S. Fisher.

EVEN THE YOUNGEST IS OLD NOW

"Jim," youngest of "11" horses and the last in the service, has just been sent to the Animal Rescue League rest farm at Dedham. For 18 years he did his work well with his driver, John J. Sullivan.

New York, Nov. 23 (AP)—The New York Herald-Tribune says a move to offer the presidency of the American Petroleum Institute to President Coolidge at the institute's annual meeting in Chicago December 24 has been started by officials of the institute.

The New York Times quotes W. H. Bush, Jr., assistant general secretary of the institute, as saying: "The action of President Coolidge, Gen. Pershing, Vice President Lowell and Gen. D. Young have been suggested in this connection, but neither has been chosen. I am, as far as I know, the institution has not given the matter any consideration."

Neighbors Rebuild the Burned Home for Widow and 8 Tots

Ontario Falls, N.Y., Nov. 23 (AP)—"Love thy neighbor as thyself," is more than a biblical phrase to farmers near here. They have literally exemplified it by rebuilding the burned home of Mrs. Ernestina Schindler, a widow with eight children.

After a carpenter's fire, which destroyed the home, the neighbors rallied to her aid immediately after the fire, in which Mrs. Schindler was overcome before she was rescued.

ONTARIO ACTS ON BOOTLEGS

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 23 (AP)—Sir Henry Drayton, chairman of the Ontario Liquor Control Board, believes he has found a way to prevent export liquor being bootlegged.

His Sunday night, they say, the Schindlers may move into their new home. A sum of money, to give the family a new start, has been raised by neighbors.

Dr. Wilson Slated to Be Hospital Chief

That there will be a change in the office of superintendent of Boston City Hospital, which has been under investigation by the City Council, was indicated today, following a statement by one of the hospital trustees.

Under a plan of the board of trustees, Dr. John J. Dowling would be replaced by the nomination of Dr. Edmund W. Wilson, now assistant, to the full superintendency. The plan would be to make Dr. Dowling "director of the hospital." This announcement came when Dr. Henry S. Brown, one of the trustees, told the special committee of the city council that the trustees were "very anxious" of making these changes.

ANALYSIS BUREAU

During the council hearing, Councilman Robert Gaudin, Wilson, Jr., of Dorchester, assailed the Boston Municipal Employment Bureau as a "junk heap" and declared that discipline could never be maintained at the hospital as long as that bureau supplied help to the institution. His characterization of this municipal department was made after trustees of the hospital had deplored the lack of nurses, the abuse of the "pass" system, and the interference of politicians in the hiring and discharging of help as the real trouble at the hospital.

Councilman Wilson further charged that Augustus Sawyer, who conducts the bureau, had absolutely no qualification to pass upon the worthiness or unworthiness of a prospective employee at the hospital.

HITS AT SEAWER

"You were successful, darling last night in the McMahon case, a fine example of the way of men placed in the City Hospital by Seawer," Wilson said.

"You heard the testimony of a man, acting as an orderly, whose duty it was to wheel patients from the operating room to their respective rooms."

Dr. Edmund W. Wilson

Live wants and cure for them on the ward, who did not even know the meaning of the word "resuscitation" and who admitted to have never heard of such a word. "If discipline is to be kept at City Hospital, and if proper help is to be employed there, cease procuring such help through Sawyer's junk heap."

LAST RITES FOR W. S. QUINBY

With a large number of prominent business men in attendance the funeral of Winfield S. Quinby, president of W. S. Quinby Company, was conducted today from the family home, 1565 Beacon st., Brookline, with services at Brookline Baptist Church, Coolidge corner. The church service was conducted by the Rev. Samuel A. Lind, pastor. Music was provided by a string quartet from New England Conservatory of Music of which institution Mr. Quinby had been a director.

James Johnson was head usher. He was assisted by Carol French, H. P. Dugan, J. J. Curry, H. S. Baldwin, C. H. Corey and Maj. F. P. Jones.

OPERATION TO INCREASE HEIGHT KILLS MIDGET

New York, Nov. 22 (INS)—Jean Pillsbury, 2½, a three-foot midget, died on the operating table while trying to have her legs straightened to increase her height so she could get work to help her sister, an inquiry today revealed.

DEFENDS WNAAC WAVE RATING

Washington, Nov. 22 (AP)—In a letter to Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, Commissioner O. H. Caldwell today defended the action of the Federal Radio Commission in placing Station WNAAC, Boston, on 12th Liberty ave., "inefficient" and "unreliable."

"Engineers' own assumption," Commissioner Caldwell said, "that when Station WNAAC broadcasts or receives its transmitter from a steel building area, the absorption of it now suffering will reach out with an intensity equal to or greater than it has ever enjoyed."

Senator Walsh recently took part in a conference with Commissioner Caldwell, at which he protested the new assignment "in behalf of the listeners of Station WNAAC."

BROCKTON SCHOOL OF MUSIC TO OPEN

Brockton, Nov. 22 (The Brockton Public School Conservatory of Music will be opened here tomorrow with more than 100 pupils from the public schools of the city registered. The conservatory was organized by the School Board with the idea of giving piano, organ, violin, viola, trombone and clarinet lessons to school children of the city. George Sawyer, Brockton wide-known concert conductor, is in charge.

RUMANIA ROCKED BY SEVERE EARTHQUAKE

Bucharest, Rumania, Nov. 22 (AP)—Severe earthquake shocks were felt throughout Rumania this morning, the tremors being particularly marked at Jassi, where several buildings fell and pictures and furnishings were thrown about. Inhabitants of the suburbs of Bucharest were panic-stricken. Telegraph and telephone services were temporarily interrupted.

BILL GIVES $500 TO MAN JAILED BY MISTAKE

Benjamin F. Collins of Lowell, whose sentence was revoked after he had served four days in State Prison for bag snatching, would be compensated in the sum of $500 for his unjust imprisonment, under a bill introduced at the State House by Representative Edgar P. Power of Lowell today.

Collins was convicted last month of several counts of larceny from women in Lowell and Somerville, a list of whom had positively identified him as the snatcher of their handbags.

Later another man giving the name of George Hill was arrested, and when goods stolen from some of the women were found in his possession, Collins' sentence was revoked.

According to the bill, Collins should be restored to his full rights and privileges as a citizen, to the extent as if he had never been convicted of the crime for which he was unjustly confined.

Women In Politics a 'Joke', She Quits to Cook

Detroit, Nov. 23 (AP)—With the assertion that "I'd rather be considered a good cook than a good woman politician," Mrs. James N. Downey, prominent Detroit political leader and for six years on the Republican State central committee, today announced her retirement forever from politics.

"The completely disillusioned of these politics," Mrs. Downey said. "Never again will I have anything to do with anything political except to cast my vote. Women in politics here are not interested in the candidate or the party. They are interested in the money. They oppose each other because they do not like each other's clothes or husband, or friends. They know nothing of politics either."

Mrs. Downey has reared four children and has three grandchildren. "And I'll show them just how well I can cook on Thanksgiving day," she said.

DRAWS HIMSELF FROM DEATH BY AID OF TRAIN

Patrick Carroll, 63, of 7 Glenwood street, Highlands, has spent most of his years as a member of the switching crew in the North Station yards of the Boston & Maine. This experience and keeping his head save him his life today in a serious accident.

Carroll, working at the foot of Sumnerville ave., saw a passenger train approaching on the main line of the Fitchburg Division. He jumped aside to avoid the train and caught his right foot between the rail and the guard rail of the outer main line.

His head shrank from fellow switchmen and saw a freight backing down on him. He tried to extricate himself and could not.

Knowing that he was in a bad way, Carroll waited until the slow-moving freight was past, then using the moving train as a lever he gave a mighty wrench. His foot came loose and he landed himself outside.

He was taken to the North Station on a passenger train and to Massachusetts Hospital, where he was found to be suffering from compound fracture of the ankle and possible internal injuries.

SANTOSUOSSO SPENT $1230

Joseph Santosuosso, unsuccessful Democratic candidate for the office of secretary of state, spent $1230.45 and received $125 in his campaign for election, a return filed today at the State House disclosed.

Other returns filed were: Arthur D. Hickey, of Somerville, Democratic candidate for Congress from the Ninth District, received $992, spent $184.35.

Congressman George R. Stobbs of Worcester received $150, all of which but $200 came from the Republican State committee, spent $2500. Stobbs' Democratic opponent, Freeman M. Salts, received $482 and spent $184.35.

AUTO INSURANCE RATES REVIEW HEARING DEC. 11

The petition for review by the Supreme Court of the compulsory auto insurance rates promulgated by Acting Insurance Commissioner Arthur E. Linnell came before Judge Pierce today, but hearing was postponed until December 11 so that all aggrieved parties may unite in one battle. It is probable that on that date the city government of Cambridge, Chelsea, Everett, Revere and Somerville and the town authorities of Winthrop will be parties to the case. The petition is filed by Representative Edward R. Spear of Chelsea. It is aimed against the insurance department's practice of dividing the State into territories, with varying rates, the highest of which are in Boston and the six other communities named.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS LOANS HALF-BILLION

Geneva, Switzerland, Nov. 23 (AP)—Reconstruction and refugee loans issued under the auspices of the League of Nations passed the half billion dollar mark with the successful flotation of a $25,000,000 loan to Bulgaria.

The total reached $250,000,000, with American investors absorbing a considerable part. The loans included loans to Bulgaria, Austria, Hungary, Greece, Estonia and the free city of Danzig.

DIG UP GIANTIC HEAD OF OLD EGYPTIAN KING

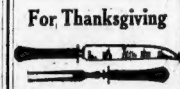

Cairo, Egypt, Nov. 23 (AP)—The Egyptian department of antiquities has unearthed a red granite head believed to represent Ierofak, the first King of the Fifth Dynasty. This is the first statue of its particular style ever discovered of one of the ancient kings. The statue of Amenhotep III found here is usually better known, but the newly discovered head is more than three times larger than life and is a specimen of the best Egyptian art.

BANDITS LOOT BANK KIDNAP WATCHMAN

Greensburg, Pa., Nov. 23 (INN)—Four bandits held up the First National Bank of Trafford when the bank opened for business today. They forced the cashier to turn over a sum estimated at $10,000 and made their escape. Kidnaping a railroad watchman who sounded an alarm.

MATTAPAN WOMAN, 85, DIES; INJURED IN FALL.

Mrs. Louisa M. Johnson, 85, of 17 Whitman park, Mattapan, died today at the home of her son, William Johnson, 8 Fairmount ave. 193d park, of injuries sustained in falling on the steps of the Municipal Building Hyde Park. Mrs. Johnson, who was a member of the Women's Relief Corps, had attended a winter party given in the Municipal Building by some of Union Veterans. On leaving she lost her footing on the steps and fell, sustaining a fracture of skull and broken knee cap.

ROOSEVELTS ON SECOND LAP OF LONG TRIP

By GEORGE W. HINMAN, JR.

Paris, Nov. 24 (Universal)—Then came and Kermit Roosevelt and their party left Paris for Marseilles, where they will take a steamship to India on the second lap of an extended zoological expedition to China under the direction of the Field Museum.

The explorers expect to proceed northward from Calcutta, making one of the completest collections in existence of mammals, birds and reptiles from the territory including French Indo-China and extending northward. For long periods the expedition will be completely isolated from the outside world.

The two Roosevelts are looking forward enthusiastically to their new experiences in the field of scientific exploration of areas about which comparatively little is known in the western world.

CONVICT 15 IN PRIMARY FRAUD

Chicago, Nov. 23 (AP)—Chicago's "clean-up crime" campaign was a criminal court victory today when jury found 15 men guilty of frauds and violence in the "Bloody Twentieth" ward last primary election day.

One of the 15 defendants, Joseph Annunzio, alias "Poppy" Gerson, was acquitted. Punishment fixed by the jury, which deliberated 11 hours, were fines ranging from $100 to $1250. The trial lasted six weeks. It was known as the "Eller trial" because the defendants were indicted by members of City Collector Morris Eller, "boss" of the "Bloody Twentieth" where sluggings, kidnappings and one slaying occurred primary election day.

Eller and his son, Judge Emanuel Eller, have been granted a separate trial on similar charges.

HUNGARY TOO BUSY TO PICK OUT A KING

Budapest, Hungary, Nov. 23 (AP)—Premier Bittlen caused great surprise and disappointment throughout Hungary by declaring at a banquet of Liberal leaders that the question of the election of a king must be put emphatically in the background. He said the country had other things to do.

LIFE OF LOTTA
CRABTREE IN VIVID SERIAL

Lotta Crabtree, long a favorite of the American stage and for many years a wealthy resident of Boston, died in 1924, leaving a fortune of nearly $2,000,000.

On September 25, 1924, her last will and testament was filed in the Suffolk probate court. First funds for various charitable and educational purposes, including $2,000,000 for the benefit of disabled soldiers and sailors and women who were in the service of the United States during the World War, featured the remarkable document.

SPRIT OF OLD WEST

Lurid pages from the history of the west, in the days when Jesse James and the Younger brothers were lawless desperadoes, when stage coaches were held up and robbed after desperate fights, with armed highwaymen, such color as this was read into the court records as evidence in support of a claim to the Crabtree millions.

After more than 10 years of litigation, when the claims of no less than 37 contestants had been carefully weighed—and found wanting, Lotta Crabtree will stand in fact.

Probate Judge William M. Frost, in dissolving the last claim, said: "Lotta Crabtree was the last of this colorful family and her testament (will) is her monument."

After more than 10 years of litigation, when the claims of no less than 37 contestants had been carefully weighed—and found wanting, Lotta Crabtree will stand in fact.

NEVER MARRIED

Lotta built up her fortune by hard work and astute application. When she retired from the stage in 1891, she had already amassed $2,000,000. She was cited as the richest actress of her day. Wise and timely investments added to her fortune.

Lotta died rich and a miser. How did she accumulate her vast riches?

Why did she never marry?

Her friends have attributed these puzzles to the genuine watchfulness of her mother.

But the real story of Lotta's life is stranger than fiction.

Because of the tremendous interest which swept the nation during the hectic days of the attempt to break her will, the Boston Evening American will reveal hitherto unknown secrets of the famous actress's life.

STORY TO BE TOLD

Beginning Monday, December 3, "The Life of Lotta Crabtree" will show her sorrows and triumphs, her heartaches and struggles. It will tell how she made her millions and became known as the richest actress of her time.

This life story, written by Constance Louisa, is the product of two years' search in the West and East, where Lotta won fame and fortune.

Watch for this wonderful feature—exclusively in the Boston Evening American—beginning Monday, December 3.

THEATER GUILD OPENS SUBSCRIPTION SEASON

In order to assist the numerous subscriptions already received for the Theater Guild season, which begins December 3 with the presentation of "Mourning Becomes Women," the Guild is now at the Hotel St. Charles, 200 N. St., in Boston, where Lotta won fame and fortune.

Watch for this wonderful feature—exclusively in the Boston Evening American—beginning Monday, December 3.

BISHOP RICKEY ISSUES NOTE IN CHURCH ROW

Providence, Nov. 22 (AP)—Disputes laid down by the Sacred Congregation of the council of the Holy Office, American bishops who wish to receive absolution from the excommunication imposed on them for anti-dominican activities under the leadership of Bishop J. J. Haughey of Worcester are contained in a pastoral letter of Bishop William A. Healy of the Providence diocese. He is one of a small number of bishops who are in a similar position.

Three formulas are given. One, to be signed by a bishop, states that he is conscious and disapproves all the acts by which "I presumed to violate the authority of the Sacred Congregation of the Holy Office."

TO END PEW STRIKE

The formula binds the signer to accept whatever instructions and conditions may be imposed on him and places him to end the present strike. The second formula, to be signed by the signatories to the last suit, expresses condemnation and disapproval of all acts by which the signer contributed to having the ordinary of Providence cited before the civil courts.

MUST BE CENSURED

It also pledges that nothing similar shall happen in the future and binds the signer to submit to the "supervision of a censor delegated by our superior."

Referring to "imaginary approbation emanating from the venerable Synod of Quebec," with regard to the anti-dominican activities, the pastoral includes a letter from Cardinal Beaudry, archbishop of Quebec, in which he says he believes in himself and his colleagues of the province that "no one can argue from our silence in support of an attitude disapproved by the Holy See."

LYNN B. U. STUDENT GOES TO FEDERATION CONGRESS

When college students over the country meet at the University of Missouri December 12 to 15 in Columbia, Mo., for the fourth annual congress of the National Student Federation of America, Boston University will be represented by Maurice Garber of Lynn. Garber was selected from the university's 12,214 students by the student council.

UPHOLDS CONDEMNATION OF HISTORICAL PROPERTY

Washington, Nov. 22 (INS)—The Supreme Court today affirmed a Kansas Supreme Court decision holding constitutional a State law authorizing condemnation of property which was of unusual historical interest.

Catherine C. Rice had appealed to reverse condemnation action brought by the old Shawnee mission tract in Johnson County, Kan. Chief Justice Taft announced the court's decision from the bench during oral argument.

Amelia Troth Never Plighted to Hub 'Beau,' She Says

Chicago, Nov. 22 (AP)—Amelia Earhart, first woman to fly across the Atlantic, arrived today to attend the Barnstable-Norfolk convention tomorrow. She made haste to deny all reports about her having broken her betrothal to Samuel Chapman of Boston, and to add that "an engagement could not be broken if there never was one."

Miss Earhart said she had never told reporters she would not discuss the matter of an engagement, but that when she did marry she would do so without announcement.

TROOPS DELAY TRY TO MURDER THOUSANDS 'TERROR COP'

Thousands of communists were delayed in reaching their points of embarkation today by troops on the Rhine. Troops were stationed all along the river and the Rhine. The first of these troops, reported at 8 a.m., when the electric power supply failed for 15 minutes. The second lot, reported at 3 o'clock, was of lower quality, although a few cream uniforms were seen on the road. They were of little use today during the troops as they were forced to remain at a standstill because of electric lines which blocked the way.

During the night, 23 (AP)—Morgan Anderson, Detroit police "boss" and "terror of the underworld," was shot and killed today by a police officer. The police officer, who was shot and killed, was a police officer. The police officer, who was shot and killed, was a police officer.

Wilkins Has Faced Dangers Often

Capt. Sir George Hubert Wilkins, commander of the Wilkins-Hearst Antarctic Expedition, has started his great aerial explorations in the Antarctic, the last unexplored territory on the globe.

When only a boy, Capt. Sir George Hubert Wilkins became interested in meteorology when he saw thousands of cattle killed by drought. At a luncheon in New York, Stefansson, the explorer, told how Wilkins had crashed a mutiny single handed in the Arctic. For his North Pole flight Capt. Wilkins was highly honored and now he's in the Antarctic.

TO MAKE FIRST EXPLORATION

Both Lockheed planes performed splendidly on first Antarctic flight. Regarding all, Sherbrooke, Richfield and papers.

The fact that Capt. Wilkins found the performance of both planes up to his expectations, leads his Los Angeles friends to believe that only weather conditions are delaying the famous explorer from the next step of his expedition.

One way to beat the traffic jam

A BANK, as well as a grocery store, should be convenient to its customers. Convincing proof of this sound principle is the hearty response of the public to the Shawmut's neighborhood offices. There are now twelve Shawmut offices in twelve important sections of Boston. Each office is the Shawmut Bank—offering checking and saving facilities and access to every financial service of this world-wide institution.

If you are a customer of one Shawmut office you are a customer of all; for regardless of where you open your account you can deposit or draw out funds at any Shawmut office near which you happen to be.

To save time—to avoid traffic—to do your banking in pleasant surroundings—bank at the Shawmut office near your home or place of business. The men in charge are there to help you and to give you every possible aid in your affairs. You will like to do business at the Shawmut office in your neighborhood.

'Married Woman Who Works Is Forced To'

"WHEN we read articles on the married woman, who has a husband supporting her, going out to work, thereby keeping someone else out of a job, we should withhold our criticism until we find out what is back of this condition!" suggests Miss Mary Anderson, director of the Washington, D. C. Women's Bureau.

NOT WORTH A RATTLE TO HER

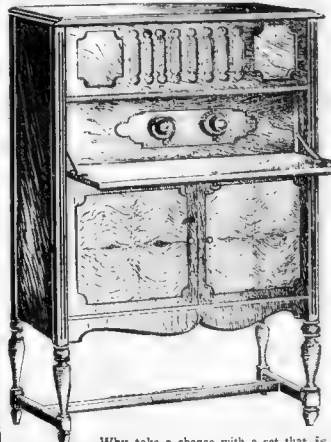

One of the wealthiest, if not the wealthiest, heiresses in the world today is Payne Whitney Payson, three years old. The Payne Whitney estate has the staggering value of $250,000,000, and little Payne Whitney Payson, granddaughter of Payne Whitney, will eventually receive, provided she lives, more than $100,000,000.

PAYNE WHITNEY FIGHT GASOLINE ESTATE NOW 250 MILLION PRICE LAWS IN COURT

New York, Nov. 23.—The largest estate ever administered in this country is the Payne Whitney estate, valued at $250,000,000, and the heiress, three-year-old Payne Whitney Payson, is fighting the State's attempt to force the estate to pay gasoline taxes. The estate is now in court, and the State is trying to force the estate to pay gasoline taxes. The estate is now in court, and the State is trying to force the estate to pay gasoline taxes.

Washington, Nov. 23 (INS).—The right of a child to sue to the protection of its estate is the principle at issue in the Payne Whitney estate case, which is now being fought out in the State of Tennessee. The estate is now in court, and the State is trying to force the estate to pay gasoline taxes. The estate is now in court, and the State is trying to force the estate to pay gasoline taxes.

Listerine
-so powerful against germs

WHEN you get home from a football game, gargle immediately with Listerine full strength. It may spare you a dangerous siege with a cold or sore throat or both.

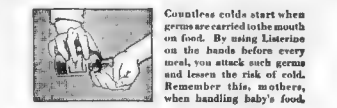

Listerine attacks the disease germs which get the upper hand when bodily resistance is lowered by exposure and nervous tension accompanying a football game.

Listerine is so powerful against germs that even the virulent B. Typhosus (typhoid) germ is killed by it in 15 seconds. Repeated tests show this.

For your own protection use Listerine after any exposure to cold weather or to crowds.

Let us send you our free book, "Personal Hygiene." Address Department S. 16, Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

MR. BOSTON
By Jack Conway

"THE sign posts point toward New Haven today," orated Mr. Boston as he tuned up the gasoline engine. "The big crowd is expected to reach its peak by tomorrow noon when some 80,000 persons will jam the place to see the sons of Harvard battle the rugged young men of Yale."

"Regardless of what Harvard and Yale may do during their football game, a change of front will be made by the Crimson and Blue squads as they leave New Haven for their respective homes."

"I am sure that the Harvard team will be in the best condition of the season, but I am not sure of the Yale team either."

"I am sure that the Harvard team will be in the best condition of the season, but I am not sure of the Yale team either."

spirit is lacking, that weekend dances now have first claim in the hearts of the students. "I believe that the reason for the lack of the old rule spirit before football clashes is that the gridiron game is getting to be common. It is an accepted part of everybody's life. "There is a football game on almost every street corner. Students are not expected to get wild and riot about overs, crimson clash in which their dear old alma mater is king."

"There are also a great many more things to occupy the attention of the students than football contests. As for the weekend dances, they are proving to be more important to the students in the long run. It is at such affairs that the students often meet the girl friend who later becomes the partner in their romance and the mother of their children."

"Consequently, it is not surprising that the students are not so keen on the old rule spirit as they once were."

"Moreover, and possibly that a football game is good excuse to skip away to New Haven, Providence, Hartford to see how the new season is doing on boarding-hoys' track."

"Some times the girl friend from the home town is invited to the party. Then there may be a mixer or two, in other words, who was obliged to go out and battle for a while with the new season, a mixer who decides of coming to a great football game."

"I don't think the powers of the world to create football spirit in the hearts of the students. It is a natural thing and is associated with a rational thing."

Suburbans idle

A Boston newspaperman says he will not go to the game Nov. 25. "There are things to play and I am not offering a reasonable guarantee. Telephone Howard Gould at his home 200 M between 9:15 and 10:15 p. m. or after 10."

Yale Expects Close Battle With Harvard in Bowl

ELLIS TO GUIDE YALE ELEVEN AT START

By RALPH GILROY
Former Princeton Captain

New Haven, Ct., Nov. 23.—"There isn't much for me to say, but you can say that we expect a nip and tuck battle with Harvard right down to the finish," said Mel Stevens, Yale's youthful head coach, when interviewed immediately after practice in the Yale locker room.

Stevens is a very likable type of coach, tactful and retiring but intelligent, and he is all eyes to see the Yale squad kick him around.

The Yale team is expected to be one of the best in the country, and the Harvard team is expected to be one of the best in the country. The game is expected to be a close one, and the Yale team is expected to win.

AUCTION BRIDGEWILBUR C. WHITEHEAD

OVERCALL OF NO TRUMP ON RIGHT.

ONE of the most futile bids in Auction Bridge is that of a No Trump overcall of an original No Trump on right when holding a defense against loss of game if No Trump is left in, and no sure defense against a possible shift by opponents to their best suit bid. Regardless of whether the suit in question is a Minor or a Major, or the honors held in the suit, if hand contains no sure defense in other suits, the player should pass on the first round of bidding and bid the suit only if the No Trump bid is taken out by partner. For example:

Spades: A K Q J x x x; Hearts: x x; Diamonds: J x x; Clubs: x x.

The holder of the hand above passes a No Trump bid on the first round of bidding and leads his Spades if No Trump is not in, such procedure offering the surest defense against the bid.

There are two types of hands, however, when abnormal, with which a player is justified in overcalling an original No Trump on right. 1—Holding probability of game for No Trump with a Major suit as "trump" or a trick with a Minor suit, and no sure defense against opponents. No Trump or against a suit with they may shift, player will bid four, immediately in the No Trump or five in the Minor bid out if possible any shift by the opponents.

Spades: K J 10 x x x; Hearts: x x; Diamonds: Q J 10 x x; Clubs: x x.
